"THE FULL MOON FAIRIES" GUIDE

THE FULL MOON REALM EXPLORATION GUILD

Official Fairy Spotter's Field Guide

Where to look, secret signs to seek, and evidence log for young adventurers

Spotter Name: _____

Expedition Date: _____

Field Territory: _____

☐ 1. The Diamond Dewdrops (Glimmerglen Clue)

Check flower petals, low grass blades, and silky spiderwebs right after sunrise. Fairies leave behind water drops that stay round and sparkle like crystals.

Where did you look? _____ Time: _____

☐ 2. The Whispering Twilight Breeze (Mount Fairet Patrol)

Sit beside an open window, porch banister, or reading nook right at dusk. Watch for one single leaf or book page fluttering while the rest of the air is still.

Where did you look? _____ Time: _____

☐ 3. The Secret Stepping Ring (Whispering Hollows)

Inspect tree trunks, mossy bark roots, and shaded garden corners. Look for an intentional tiny circle of smooth stones, wild mushrooms, or acorn caps.

Where did you look? _____ Time: _____

☐ 4. The Borrowed Blossom Petal (Meadow Lantern Trail)

Search outdoor benches, hollow wooden fence posts, or sidewalk cracks for a single colorful petal or soft bird feather neatly placed where it does not belong.

Where did you look? _____ Time: _____

Night Sky Sighting

☐ 5. The Full Moon Dance Shadows

When the full moon is high, step onto your lawn or look out your bedroom window toward tree silhouettes. Watch for quick, dancing glimmers in the treetops.

Where did you look? _____ Time: _____

"THE SPOTTER'S CODE OF KINDNESS"

Walk softly: Never disturb moss, flower stems, or hollow roots.

Look with eyes, not fingers: Keep small hands still so fairies feel safe.

Leave a gift of thanks: A polished pebble or acorn cap is their favorite.
